

Eligibility Outline

Eligible musicians in Ontario can apply to perform through MusicTogether, and will be evaluated on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Our goal is to get you paid for what you do best, and celebrate your music during this hardship. There's a few ground rules to cover first:

- You must be a Canadian citizen or permanent resident
- You must be a permanent resident of Ontario for one year prior (April 1, 2019)
- You must be living in Ontario
- You must be 18 years or older
- You must meet the tech-requirements of being able to livestream your performance on Instagram or Facebook
- You must agree to promote your performance should you be selected
- You must be a working professional musician, obtaining the majority of your income from musical endeavors
- You must have had gigs, sessions or tours cancelled because of COVID-19
- You may not use the platform to promote or condone hate or violence against people based on race, ethnicity, color, national origin, religion, age, gender, sexual orientation, disability, medical condition, veteran status or other forms of discriminatory intolerance. You may not use the platform to promote or support organizations, platforms or people that: (i) promote or condone such hate; or (ii) threaten or condone violence to further a cause.

MusicTogether.ca

Support Ontario artists without leaving home